

Christ Presbyterian Church Solo Pastor Job Posting

Position Type: Solo pastor

Position Title: Pastor

Job Description:

Each week, preach Christ from the entirety of scripture, administer communion and officiate Sunday worship service.

Officiate baptisms and special worship services as occasioned by the life of the congregation.

Draft worship service bulletins in coordination with music ministry.

Fill and oversee ministry volunteer positions, including greeting, bulletin assembly, communion preparation, nursery, Young Worshipers in Training children's Sunday school, sound board and community group studies.

Visit and encourage congregants that are homebound, infirm, in hospital, or otherwise in need.

Oversee shepherding of congregants.

Regularly moderate the session, train officer candidates as needed, and lead the congregation's participation in presbytery.

Oversee distinct outreach and service ministries to both the people of Grove City and the students of the Christian, liberal arts Grove City College campus.

Oversee administrative functions for the regular business of the congregation.

Encourage participation in and support for evangelism and missions.

Participate in formal and informal pastors' networks in order to collaborate in Gospel-centered ministry with other Christian congregations.

Position Qualifications:

Our pastor shall be born again in Christ with a strong sense of calling to Reformed ministry in a Presbyterian setting.

He should have a strong gift for regularly preaching Christ from the entirety of scripture.

He ideally is gifted for outreach toward both the people of Grove City and the students of Grove City College. This will entail a communication style that is not just articulate and accurate, but also at times plain-spoken and deeply affecting.

He will have a particular burden to teach a Christ- and cross-centered message to give encouragement and hope to those broken by sin, helping people see the grace and forgiveness available to them in Christ, as well as seeing growth in overcoming sin through the normal processes of sanctification and practical Christian discipleship.
