Women's Bible Study Questions
Lesson 4- Sermon on the Mount-The Beatitudes- Matt 5:21-48

1. In what ways do the metaphors of salt and light describe a believer's role (as well as the role of every local church) in the world?

2. Why does Jesus begin several teachings with the phrase, "You have heard that it was said…"? What is Jesus emphasizing by using this expression?

3. After hearing Jesus' teaching on being salt and light, along with His deeper explanation of God's commands, what most stands out to you about the kind of righteousness He expects His followers to live out?

4. Which of these six areas (anger, lust, marriage, truthfulness, revenge, love) is the most challenging for you, and why?