SERVING WITH Serge

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest."

OFFERING A Greater Home

Home has been a moving target for me over the years. I was born in Virginia, moved to Ohio, lived in Arizona, went to college in Pennsylvania, did RUF in South Georgia and in Charlotte. Now, I am moving to Malaga, Spain with an organization called Serge.

Different cities, states, and now countries, but all of these moves taught me the true meaning of Home: in Christ and with His people. In fact, my communities of faith have often been where I experience home.

The culture of family and home exists in Spain, but in a very different sense. There is "Welcome" but much of it is empty of Christ. Although Spain's past is filled with Roman Catholicism, the current number of Evangelical Christians in the whole country is less than that of Saudi Arabia. That's staggering.

Faith has been replaced by modern skepticism and identity rooted in what this world offers. Often this looks like pressure to build a life that meets some external standard, a pressure I have personally experienced. But that kind of pursuit eventually ends in a deep emptiness, always requiring something else.

This is why my vision is to bring a new sense of Home and Welcome to the communities of Malaga, a Greater Home where true grace resides and eternal belonging is freely offered.

Jesus invites all people from every nation into His family, offering the truest sense of Home in Him. This is the original Mi-Casa-es-Su-Casa welcome. I have experienced this reality and now I have the opportunity to invite others to receive the same welcome in Spain.

OBJECTIVE: OFFER REST

I am joining a team who cares for their communities in this way, offering life-giving Welcome through hospitality, in-home Bible studies, kids summer camps, and retreat-based events for pastors and leaders.

Through these avenues I will aim to offer the rest that Jesus offers in Matthew 11:27, a rest for the soul extended to the heavy-laden. This ties in to the mission of Serge which places a high value on ministry out of weakness, and an understanding that Christ takes our burdens upon him.

A PARTNERED MINISTRY

I cannot do this alone. Just as our lives are not lived in solitude, this ministry cannot exist without partners who join and strengthen this work. I would like to ask you to prayerfully consider joining me as a ministry partner.

The health and longevity of this ministry grows from the prayers of this larger community and its financial support. So I am honored to invite you into this work with me!

With love,

Kevin
